

CROYDON PHILATELIC SOCIETY

MINUTES OF THE MEETING – 14.01.2014

The evening was a MEMBER'S MEETING at which members of the Society made presentations on their own collections. Members were asked to produce presentations with the LETTER E.

There were 19 members present and President Brian Asquith declared the meeting open at 7.40pm.

Members present at the evening.

- Alan Holverson showed stamps of Egypt from 1866.
- James Price showed an Exclusive Envelope received from the Philatelic Bureau.
- Lynda Willis showed stamps related to Eating.
- John Ray showed Essays of Fiji stamps.
- Ian Nutley' presentation was of the Graf Zeppelin flight to Egypt in 1931.
- John Schofield had a variety of material of Exhibitions in France in 1925 and 1927, an Expedition in 1937 to the Gilbert and Ellice Islands and stamps showing Elephants in Laos.
- Chris Board presented Essays for the Union of South Africa and the former Cape Colony.
- Chris Hitchen displayed a variety of covers of Exprès mail in France from 1892.
- David Taylor showed how an Envelope sent by the Post Office Savings and Giro Bank in Germany had many uses.
- Malcolm Domingo displayed Envelopes from the Indian States with an Extra dagger.
- Brian Asquith presented Ethiopian airmails from 1929-1945.
- Graham Harker's display was of a variety of Errors on Great Britain stamps from George V to Elizabeth II.
- Frank Simpson showed a number of Envelopes of love letters from Auguste in Flechtorf to Heinrich in Goslar following their engagement.

There was great variety of presentations and some ingenuity in meeting the Letter E criteria. An enjoyable evening closed at 09.30pm.
